

FORM 8843

What is Form 8843?

Form 8843 is not an income tax return. Form 8843 is merely an informational statement required by the U.S. government for certain nonresident aliens (including the spouses or dependents of nonresident aliens).

Who Needs to File Form 8843?

All F-1/J-1 visitors and their F-2/J-2 dependents must file Form 8843 if they are considered 'non-residents for tax purposes.' This is the case whether or not you earned income or will need to file a tax return, too. Form 8843 must be filed if both of the following conditions are met:

1. Present in the U.S. in F-1, F-2, J-1, or J-2 status for any portion of the previous calendar year (the year for which you are filing)
2. A non-resident for tax purposes
NOTE: If you changed status during the previous calendar year from a 'non-resident for tax purposes' to a 'resident for tax purposes', or vice versa, you may be considered a 'Dual Status Alien'. If you think you may be a Dual Status Alien, you should visit the IRS website for more information.

If you had earned income or a taxable scholarship in the U.S., you may ALSO need to submit form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ (“tax returns”). For more information about submitting a tax return with Form 8843, refer to the International Web Canvas Course.

The Form 8843 and instructions are at the link below. Save the form to your computer, type in the answers, and save the completed form. Print the form to send it by mail.
